

Policy

Dues payable to the National Association of Home Builders

Dues payable to the Home Builders Association of South Carolina

The association is affiliated with the National Association of Home Builders. Consistent with the Affiliation Agreement with NAHB, the association will pay dues to the National Association of Home Builders as established from time-to-time in the agreement and may be collected at the time of reporting of members or at other times that may be established by agreement.

As a result of its affiliation with the NAHB, the association also affiliates with the Home Builders Association of South Carolina. Consistent with the Affiliation Agreement with HBASC, the association will pay dues to the Home Builders Association of South Carolina as established from time-to-time in the agreement and may be collected at the time of reporting of members to NAHB or at other times that may be established by agreement.

Adopted: July 15, 2019 (Board of Directors)